

Thursday, 22 May 2014
9:01 AM

Future Me

As a teenager, what do you think the future holds?

Activity

Write an email to your future self (250 words)

In your email you should outline at least SIX predictions that you have for the future.

Include:

A greeting to yourself!

Paragraph 1

Personal predictions - What do you HOPE you will be doing? Travel? Living? Studying? Working? Family? Goals?

Paragraph 2

Social predictions - Technology? Jobs? Politics? Cost of a loaf of bread? Weather? Environment?

Paragraph 3

Global predictions - will the world be a happier place to live? Will men and women be equal? Will racism and discrimination still exist? Will poverty still exist?

Write your email at futureme.org - Set the date to receive your email for 10 years from today.

Write/type a draft of your email before you cut and paste it or type it into the program.